NEW FACES IN COUNTY JOBS

TOM CONNALLY THANKS SUPPORTERS IN MILAM

The editor of the Herald is in receipt of a letter from Senator Tom Connally expressing appreciation for the support given his candidacy by this newspaper, and extending thanks to all his friends in Milam County. The statement accompanying the letter is as follows:

"It will be impossible for me to see personally and extend direct thanks to all my friends and supporters for their loyalty and support in the campaign which has just come to an end. "Because of the limited time between adjournment of Congress and the date of the primary it was impossible for me to visit all counties in the state and to meet my friends and supporters. Allow me to take this means of thanking the Democracy of Texas for re-nominating me to a second term in the United States Senate. "To those friends and supporters who actively worked for me I want to express a very deep and keen sense of thanks and gratitude. It shall be my earnest desire to serve the people of Texas during the next six years as to justify the confidence and regard of all who gave my candidacy their support.

Tom Connally.

FUNDS AVAILABLE TO COMPLETE ROADWAY

Texas Highway Commission is without knowledge of any movement to withdraw appropriations for the Cameron-Minerva highway, it was disclosed Monday in a conference held with city officials from Cameron.

All possible haste was made to procure right of way. It is believed the report came in good time and helped stimulate the necessary work here which had been prolonged through several months.

ELECTION UPSETS ON SATURDAY SURPRISING

New faces in court house jobs resulted from Saturday's balloting in Milam county when the electorate went to the polls and cast around 6700 votes.

Unexpected defeats and surprising victories came along to make the 1934 poll one of the most colorful and dramatic in the history of Milam county.

There will be a run-off campaign in August for the office of Assessor and Collector with Henderson Walker, county surveyor, being opposed by Bill Alex Bonds, former tax collector who returns to politics after ten years in the oil business.

In the race for county treasurer with five in the field, the run off will be between Woodsie Devers, who failed by a few votes in 1932 of the nomination, and Ernest Howard, in the political limelight for the first time.

Blaylock Defeated.

Leonard Blaylock, veteran sheriff and Texas peace officer, one of the most successful law enforcement organizers in the state, went down before the barage of ballots. Max Kennedy, former constable for precinct No. 7, ran away from the veteran sheriff and was nominated by a majority of 840 votes. Jeff T. Kemp won again, defeating J. O. Hughes of Ad Hall by more than 600 votes.

Guy T. Newton, young war veteran and educator, defeated Mrs. Kathryn Robbins, present incumbent and Miss Irma Porter, Superintendent of the Ada Henderson school, for (See ELECTION on page 4)

To the Voters of Commissioners Precinct 1

I desire to express my sincere appreciation to those who supported me in my race for Commissioner for Precinct No. 1 composed of Justice Precincts 6 and 7. Although I did not succeed to the run off I appreciate those loyal friends who voted for me.

In the last few days of the campaign I was made the victim of dirty, contemptible political lies and falsehoods circulated to injure me in the campaign. I denounce the authors of these falsehoods as base attackers of my character and citizenship and wish the people of the Precinct to know that these reports are false in every particular and those who uttered them against me are beneath contempt and are not entitled to the respect of honest men and women.

I appreciate friends and am grateful to those who voted for and supported me.

K. OF C. BALL TEAM

DEFEAT GAY HILL 13 TO 9

Playing a game packed with thrills and suspense and lucky breaks, the K. of C. team won their ninth straight game of the season last Sunday defeating Gay Hill 13 to 9.

Two walks, an error and four hits gave the visitors six runs in the first inning. Another drifted in the fourth on two errors and a hit by D. Eiland. Jost, pitching for Gay Hill, held the K. of C. to one run until hit on the arm by a terrific wallop from the bat of Ernest Michalka. He retired with a 7 to 1 lead.

After Jost had gone the Knights jumped on Hirt and Calloway for twelve runs, four of which came in the eighth inning and settled the ball game.

For Gay Hill, Jost pitched superbly, striking out eight men in the three innings he worked. Dyer, right fielder, got three singles and a double in four times to the plate, while S. Eiland got three for five.

Ted Matula made a pretty pick-up of D. Eiland's hit to left field in the eighth. The ball landed about a yard in front of him and landed into his

Loses His Bet

R. S. Brashears, publisher of the Childress Daily Index, Childress, Texas, issued the world's first "No-rain, No-pay" edition on July 17. The provisions were that if it did not rain by July 24, the advertisers owed nothing. If it rained half an inch, they paid the full advertising rate. The paper carried 1,300 inches of advertising, but it didn't rain, and Publisher Brashears didn't collect. The loser is pictured above. The paper also carried an ad from the postoffice. (Texas News Photos.)

glove. It looked like a low catch and Eiland started to his dugout but the coach forced him to remain on first base.

Gay Hill almost won the game in the eighth frame. Caffey started with a strike out. Dyer singled past second base. Doss struck out and Hirt doubled to left field scoring Dyer.

Seidl singled to right field scoring Hirt with the tying run. D. Eiland singled sending Seidl to third. Ladis walked out of the box and Ted Matula forced E. Doss to hit a slow roller back toward pitcher's box, ending the inning. Ladis used his head when he retired himself for it takes a mighty cool headed one to say "maybe a change in pitching will stop this rally." Ladis received credit for winning the game, the fifth for the K. of C.

THE OLD OAK TREE

By L. J. Bowling
Gause, Texas

I like to look across the way
From where I sit most every day
It is a beautiful sight to see—
A stately, well shaped old oak tree.

The body many inches through,
Above green leaves now quite new.
This tree is old and very fine,
And I have made it's beauty mine.

I am filled with wonder as I look;
I see a nest in a tiny crook.
I know the birds love this tree, too,
As they and I do, so would you.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Sunday August 5th, Evening Prayer and sermon at 8 o'clock.

B. P. Matocha, attorney, made a trip to Austin Tuesday to confer with the Attorney General's Department for the purpose of getting the City of Cameron Sewer Extension Bonds approved. He reported that the bonds have been approved, and that work will soon begin.

Approximately $30,000.00 will be spent on this project of which 30 per cent is a grant or donation to the City of Cameron by the Government.

Mrs. Agnes Mathews of Gatesville accompanied by a lady friend, visited Mrs. Annie Bonds one day last week.

To the Voters of
Milam County

By the kindness of the voters, I led in the first primary for Assessor and Collector, and am now a contender in the run off election.

To those who so loyally supported me I am deeply grateful and I solicit their continued support and influence.

There is no ill feeling in my heart against those who did not vote for me and I ask them to re-consider my candidacy and if possible give me their votes in the second primary.

The very nature of the office of Assessor and Collector calls for business experience, steadiness, conservatism and willingness to work untiringly.

I trust that the voters will decide that I possess these qualities and will give me the privilege of serving them.

My experience in the office of Collector will, I believe, aid me very materially in serving you as Assessor and Collector.

With gratitude for past favors and hoping to merit your future confidence and support, I am,

Sincerely your friend,

Black-Draught For
Dizziness, Headache
Due To Constipation

"I have used Thedford's Black-Draught several years and find it splendid," writes Mr. G. W. Holley, of St. Paul, Va. "I take it for dizziness or headache (due to constipation). I have never found anything better. A short while ago, we began giving our children Syrup of Black-Draught as a laxative for colds and little stomach ailments, and have found it very satisfactory." ... Millions of packages of Thedford's Black-Draught are required to satisfy the demand for this popular, old reliable, purely vegetable laxative. 25¢ a package. "Children like the Syrup."

In Grateful
Appreciation

My heart is filled with gratitude for the splendid majority I received on Saturday, July 28 in my race for Sheriff of Milam county. My nomination for this office places upon me a great responsibility. I want the co-operation of the people to the end that I may be able to render them a service worthy of their confidence in me.

To those who manifested a personal interest in my campaign I am grateful as well as to the people who voted for me. I hold no ill will against those who voted for my opponent. All the people will find in me a friend and officer who will at all times strive to be of service and to measure up to the responsibilities of the office.

Your friend,
